Fountainhead provides objective data analysis related to healthcare disputes and investigations.

Founded in 2002, Fountainhead focuses exclusively on serving the needs of health lawyers across the United States. Fountainhead is a niche consulting firm providing “big firm” quality and capability at a superior value. Fountainhead provides customized solutions for collecting, managing and analyzing data and documents related to legal issues, disputes or internal investigations. Through an objective analysis of these data, Fountainhead provides its healthcare clients with a valuable asset: knowledge. Equipped with this knowledge, our clients evaluate risk and make better, more strategic decisions.

“big firm” quality and capability at a superior value.

We have assisted our clients with several different types of services and analyses, from lost interest calculations to complex data modeling and analysis for multi-million dollar litigation. Some recent engagements can be found on our website. We have worked in a variety of contexts, including internal corporate investigations, pre-litigation inquiries, discovery, trial, settlement and mediation.

We distinguish ourselves through our dedication to this practice area, our responsiveness, and our ability to deliver “big firm” quality and capability at superior value. We welcome the opportunity to work with you.
